OCTOBER. VIII Month.

And thus, if we may credit Fame's Report,
The beſt and faireſt in the Gallic Court,
An Hour ſometimes in Hoſpitals employ,
To give the dying Wretch a Glimpſe of Joy;
T' attend the Crouds that hopeleſs Pangs endure,
And ſoothe the Anguiſh which they cannot cure;
To clothe the Bare, and give the Empty Food;
As bright as Guardian Angels, and as good.

1	9 A. 39	4 M 30	7	On the 12th of this month, Anno 1702, admiral Rooke and the duke of Ormond attack'd the
2	10 43	5 25	8	French and Spaniſh fleet, and the town of Vigo.
3	11 43	6 20	9	Nine galeons and 6 of their men of war were taken;
4	12 43	7 4	10	14 men of war and 4 galeons, were ſunk and burnt.
5	M. 43	7 47	10	On the 14th of this month, Anno 1644, was
6	1 38	8 29	11	born William Penn, the great founder of

26	A.	M. 40	3	a certain writer does, who gravely tells us, Man is
27	6 36	1 37	4	rightly called a little world becauſe he is a Microcoſm.
28	7 32	2 29	5	On the 29th, Anno 1618, was the famous ſir
29	8 28	3 20	6	Walter Rawleigh beheaded; to the eternal ſhame
30	9 31	4 8	7	of the attorney-general, who firſt proſecuted him,
31	10 31	4 55	7	and of the king, who ratify'd the ſentence.

How happy is he, who can ſatisfy his hunger with any food, quench his thirſt with any drink, pleaſe his ear with any muſick, delight his eye with any painting, any ſculpture, any architecture, and divert his mind with any book or any company! How many mortifications muſt he ſuffer, that cannot bear any thing but beauty, order, elegance & perfection! Your man of taſte, is nothing but a man of diſtaſte.
